Delaware Correctional Center Participates in Adopt-A-Family Food Drive

The Diversity Committee at the Delaware Correctional Center (DCC) near Smyrna recently held an Adopt-A-Family Food Drive that was able to provide eight local families with non-perishable food items this holiday season.

"We wanted to give back to our local community and make it a team effort," said Staff Lt. Bernard Williams Sr., Chairperson of the DCC Diversity Committee, an in-house group that works to improve employee relations and promote teamwork.

Employees at DCC were assisted in their collection effort by staff at the Department of Correction Administration Building in Dover.

"As soon as we heard what DCC was doing, we had to help," said DOC Diversity Coordinator Britta Strop, who works in the Administration Building. "The Diversity Committee at DCC has done a tremendous job in making this program a success and we can't wait to make it an even bigger success next year."

DCC Diversity Committee members (L to R) Bernard Williams Sr., Terrell Cornell, Hector Baez, Jenny Havel with daughter Alexis, Mike Little, Dereke Doane, John Langiu, Dan Atherholt and DOC Diversity Coordinator Britta Strop, recently held a food drive that benefited eight local families.
