DOC Among Organizations Offering Alternative to 'Mischief Night'

The Delaware Department of Correction (DOC), in cooperation with the Delaware Chapter of the National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice (NABCJ), is providing children and teens in Wilmington a safe, free and fun-filled alternative to partaking in 'Mischief Night' on Friday, October 30.

The PAL Center on 3707 North Market Street will be turned into a Haunted House, Halloween Party and candy give-away from 6-9 p.m. Correction Officers, Probation & Parole Officers, Police Officers from across the state and other employees who work in corrections and criminal justice will be helping out on site as actors in the haunted house, doing fun activities with the participating kids, serving refreshments and handing out the Halloween goody bags.

Children, teens and parents are invited to attend the event, which has received tremendous support from numerous law enforcement agencies and civic and community groups.

"The idea for this event was to give the youth of Wilmington somewhere to go instead of being on the street where they might get hurt or get into trouble," said Ronald Sauls, president of Delaware's Chapter of NABCJ. "We have received generous contributions and support from numerous agencies and organizations, which we believe will make this event a great success."
