Plummer Community Corrections Center Offender Captured in Wilmington

The second of five offenders who left the Plummer Community Corrections Center (PCCC) without authorization on Friday, October 8, has been apprehended. Markevis McDougal, 25, was brought back in to Department of Correction (DOC) custody Monday afternoon after being captured in Wilmington by a DOC Emergency Response Team.

McDougal was apprehended around 3:30 p.m. on Bennett Street, between 7th and 8th Streets. He is currently being held at Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in Wilmington.

McDougal is the second offender to be found, as Andrew Burgos, 18, was arrested in Philadelphia by Philadelphia Police Department officers on Saturday. He is currently awaiting extradition to Delaware. Law enforcement officers continue to search for the remaining three offenders, all black males, who left PCCC on 10/08/2010:

- Kiayre Braxton, 21, 5'07" and 140 pounds. Braxton arrived at PCCC on 07/14/2010. He was serving an 8-year Level 4 Crest sentence, suspended upon completion of the Crest program for 18 months at Level 3. He was sentenced for Possession within 1000' of a School.
- Irvin Lewis, 31, 5'03" and 180 pounds. Lewis arrived at PCCC on 07/14/2010. He was serving an 8-year Level 5 sentence, suspended after 1 year for balance to be served at DOC discretion, suspended after 8 months for 18 months at Level 3. He was sentenced for Possession of a Deadly Weapon by Person Prohibited.
- Jermaine Miller, 30, 5'10" and 160 pounds. Miller arrived at PCCC on 08/18/2010. He was serving a 17-year, 11-month sentence at Level 4 Crest, suspended upon completion of the Crest program for 3 months at Level 4 home confinement and 12 months at Level 3. He was sentenced for violation of probation on an original charge of Possession within 1000' of a School.

Plummer Community Corrections Center is a Level 4 facility where the DOC manages offenders who are transitioning back into the community. These centers are not secured like Level 5 prisons, as offenders are permitted to leave the facility to go to work, seek jobs or attend approved treatment sessions.

Anyone with information on the offenders is asked to call (302) 761-2800.
